IV. Reports

REPORTS TO REVIEW	Magnet Status – Mr. Schiavone
DISCUSSION	Structure, routines and procedures, solid communication with families and teacher accountability for required minutes per subject that were discussed and accepted last school year have all been established since the beginning of the school year 2021-2022.
CONCLUSIONS

REPORTS TO REVIEW	Tax Credit Report
DISCUSSION	Tax credit money is listed as follows: $12,000 in undesignated; $3000.00 for Arts and $3000.00 for Sports.
CONCLUSIONS

REPORTS TO REVIEW	Principal's Report
DISCUSSION	Since Frankie has been principal, our school has gained another FT teacher per year. Our enrollment continues to increase, and is approximately 389 enrolled students. We are meeting the needs for parent engagement through Title 1 and the PTC. We had an extraordinary turnout for Conferences as well as our Welcome Back Night. Title 1 pays for free lunch to all students and provides the school with $350,000 pr year. We pay teacher assistants, the Dean and Tutoring costs with Title 1 funds. Upcoming plans for further parent engagement will be a Literacy Night in December, and a Science Night in the spring.
